Dear Students,

Recently, we have received reports of unauthorized salesman entering the campus to promote and sell graduation trips (Ex: to Thailand). We urge everyone to stay vigilant and help reinforce awareness to prevent unauthorized sales and potential fraud on campus.

1. Prohibition of Unauthorized Sales Activities

- All commercial sales activities without approval are strictly prohibited on campus, including but not limited to multi-level marketing, credit card promotions, loan consultations, and product trials.
- Do not accept products or services from unknown individuals, as this may lead to being misled into signing unfair contracts.

2. Be Aware of Fraudulent Tactics and Strengthen Personal Protection

(1) Common Types of Scams:

1. Impersonation of School or Institutions – Fraudsters may claim to be school representatives, requesting personal information or payments.
2. Investment Scams – Promises of high returns to lure students into fraudulent investment schemes.
3. Shopping Scams – Selling low-priced items via social media, demanding advance payments but failing to deliver.
4. Job Scams – Advertisements for high-paying part-time jobs that require upfront fees or the sharing of bank account details.

(2) Self-Protection Measures: If you suspect a scam, report it to the school immediately or call the Anti-Fraud Hotline at 165.

- Do not trust unknown phone calls or messages. Always verify with the school or authorities before responding to suspicious requests. Avoid clicking on unknown links or sharing personal information.
